David Exodus Kindergarten is an independent English language pre-school and has no formal connection with any primary school or organization.

A pre-school education is provided by experienced and qualified English speaking teachers.

The main intake of students is at the beginning of September.

The Easter intake is limited and subject to students currently attending the kindergarten being accepted into primary school, this normally depends upon age, (i.e. those children born between January and April).

Applications are accepted throughout the year, however, A.M. places are limited and offered according to the date of application.

The children attending this kindergarten are prepared for entry into International and the English Schools Foundation schools.

The kindergarten operates morning sessions, offering K.1 and K.2 classes with approximately 25 children in each class. The staff ratio is one teacher to every 10 children.

Kindergarten 1.	Age: Rising three to four years old.
Kindergarten 2.	Age: Rising four to five years old.

The hours of operation are:

Morning class	9:30a.m. until 12:30p.m.
